RIDLEY SAYS DEVIL
SHOULD HATE BEAVERS

Minister Ridicules "Pettty Politics" Among "High-Ups" in Atlanta

The devil's viewpoint of affairs in Atlanta was expressed by Rev. C. H. Ridley in his pulpit at the Central Presbyterian church, Sunday evening. "If I were the devil," said the preacher, "I would hold my sides and laugh at the petty politics among the 'high-ups' in the political life of our city. I would try to blind the people's eyes to the truth from seeing the real motives and I would make them believe that the little men who are in the office and who are real reformers, willing to give their blood for the people's interests."

"If I were the devil I would despise beavers. I would call them names and try to get them out of the water just as soon as possible. I would be uncompromisingly opposed to any kind of the law which would save beavers, because I know that beavers would be in the office men capable of crime and would oppose me. I would never stand for law enforcement and I would oppose every little thing that would be done in the case of beavers. I would be in the community with no more sense than to serve me and I would use all of them in an effort to reach him."

"If I were the devil I would make all manner of fun of the executive committee of the Men and Religion for Men and Religion. I would call all the members of the executive committee hypocrites. I would make them interested in questionable things and that Marion Jackson was very kind. I would employ every little bit of town who had nothing else to do and I would fill his head and heart with such phrases as 'Necessary Killing Business', 'Taking Our Charity', 'Robbing Us of Tax Money', and I would have them praise him in the street corners and around every corner in the city."

NEED CHURCH CLEANUP,
SAYS REV. DR. HOLDBERY

The church has lost much of its personality, and hence has lost her power, declared Dr. A. H. Holdbery, pastor of More Memorial Presbyterian church, in his pulpit Sunday evening. Dr. Holdbery scored political conditions in Atlanta, but he declared the reason for the loss among the church people themselves.

"The church is not right with God," he said. "The church, as well as politics, needs a good cleaning up, and then the church will be able to do its duty. The church is not right with God, and the church is not right with the world. The church is not right with the world, and the church is not right with the world."

Rev. Fred A. Line, pastor of the First Baptist church, Sunday evening, declared that the church is not right with God, and the church is not right with the world. The church is not right with the world, and the church is not right with the world.

Dr. L. O. Bricker, pastor of the First Baptist church, Sunday evening, declared that the church is not right with God, and the church is not right with the world. The church is not right with the world, and the church is not right with the world.

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

MONTH-END SALE

RICH'S maintains its unrivaled position as the first store of Atlanta only by having constant streams of fresh, new merchandise forever flowing through. To keep the channels of trade free, we clear away each month the odds and ends and broken lines—the flotsam and jetsam of merchandise—that would otherwise dam and clutter up our stocks. The nature of this clearaway process is exemplified in the present Month-End Sale prices.

Because of these absurdly low prices, we can accept no phone or mail orders, nor permit approvals or exchanges. Except in a very few minor instances, prices are strictly for Tuesday only.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, With a Greater Rush of the
the Crowds Were So Great We Could Hardly

All Purchases Backed by Big Buying Power

Some people wonder why J. M. High Co. can sell merchandise of the best class at lower prices. Here are the reasons:

Our New York connections representing the combined purchases of 31 Department Stores with a buying power of over 21 millions of dollars, consequently we get in on everything on the ground floor. Whole stocks from mills, manufacturers, garment makers and others are taken at one swoop and divided pro-rata. The J. T. Leonard Syndicate, Everett Building, Union Square, New York, are ever "on the job" with their skilled knowledge. We are in constant telegraphic communication with them. The moment a style is born in New York, it is shown simultaneously at "High's"—because our Buying Sleuths are ever on the alert. 150 to 200 buyers from all the largest houses of the country meet in this New York office daily. Do you think these keen, shrewd men would miss anything? No Sir!

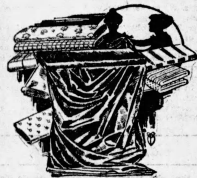

This Syndicate will buy 3,000 pieces Dress Goods, for instance at a price far below the regular value. We get our share of the bargain and pass it on to you. This method of merchandising is fast forging to the front and we are proud that this store in the beautiful city of Atlanta can participate in all the good things of the whole world. We back every dollar's worth that goes out our doors.

Do you know everything sold in this splendid store really goes out on approval? You can return it if not satisfied. Really a Wonderful Store, started in 1880 same lines and 1913 finds the same principles, only on broader field and larger purposes. "Watch us Grow."

ASKS $10,000 FOR
LOSS OF HIS EYE

J. T. Murphy Sues Harry O'Donnelly and New South Brewing and Ice Co.

As the result of a fight in which he lost an eye, J. T. Murphy entered suit Monday morning in the superior court for $10,000 damages against Harry O'Donnelly, who delivered the blow, and the New South Brewing and Ice company, for which O'Donnelly is the local agent.

Murphy sets out that he was formerly the agent for the company here and that O'Donnelly succeeded him. The company entered suit against him, he asserted, and he brought a counter suit, which involved O'Donnelly.

On September 25, he asserts, O'Donnelly, whom he describes as a man of a very dangerous disposition, met and struck him with some blunt instrument, putting out his left eye.

Murphy also declares in his petition that O'Donnelly is now in hiding, and he asks the state writ of ne exeat to prevent his leaving the state, and to make W. H. Terrell and John T. Smith represent the injured man.

Early Morning Fire

A bonfire house owned by the Governor's House Guards and conducted by W. W. Dean, at 107 Piedmont avenue, was damaged slightly by fire at 5 o'clock Monday morning. A man who happened to be passing noticed the flames and alerted the occupants of the house. It is a two-story frame structure.

MR. JULIUS BUKOFZER
DIED ON SUNDAY NIGHT

The friends of Bruno Bukofzer, manager of the Terminal hotel, are today feeling his consolation over the death of his father, Mr. Julius Bukofzer, Sunday night in Chattanooga.

Mr. Bukofzer was sixty years of age and had been in failing health for several years. Only recently he had returned from a two years' sojourn in Europe, where he went in the hope that a change of climate might benefit him.

Mr. Bukofzer was at the head of several Atlanta houses of Chattanooga before his retirement from active life, and was well known in that city.

Surviving Mr. Bukofzer are his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Rose Simpson, and his sons, Edwin Bukofzer, of New York, and Bruno Bukofzer, of Atlanta.

MANY ALLURING BARGAINS GIVEN AT HIGH'S ANNIVERSARY SALE

Bewildering Array of Splendid Features at Sale Which Will Last Through October

J. M. High Company's thirty-third anniversary sale opened Monday morning. Were you there? Everybody else was. But if you missed the opening, you'll have the whole of October to make good. The sale will last through October, and every day there will be a new group of alluring bargains.

"Every day will be better than the one preceding it," said W. H. Brittain, president and general manager of the company, Monday morning. The store was crowded then, and the first day's sale was going with a rush. "That's the point of our motto: 'Beat yesterday.' We've got last winter's record to break, and we are going to get a good start right now toward breaking it. In a few years we have climbed from a business of $60,000 a year to one of $1,000,000. Next year we are going to make it a million and a quarter."

Many things that hearts would desire were on display at Monday's sale, as "specials." There were dress goods and silks, luxurious wooden fixtures, domestic appliances, porcelains, sheets, blankets, towels, gold jewelry, silver novelties, boys' clothing, women's and misses' suits, dresses and coats, men's underwear, shirts and neckties, sweaters, rugs, carpets and newfangled leathers in the military department.

hosiery, lace, gloves, shoes—these and a bewildering array of other things, with a list of anniversary sale features that no one could resist: all at remarkable prices.

LOW PRICES. "Add the prices we are able to offer are amazing to many people," said Mr. Brittain. "They are asking us repeat, 'How is it that you can sell this at such a low price when its quality is good?' The reason lies in something that comparatively few people know. We are members of a great buying syndicate of thirty-one stores. That explains our prices."

"Our combined purchases through the J. T. Leonard syndicate, in New York amount to the staggering total of $21,000,000. Consequently we get everything on the ground floor, so to speak. We get the very lowest prices because the syndicate have in such tremendous quantities, and then distribute it to the thirty-one stores that compose it. We pass the bargains on to our customers."

By operating with thirty other stores as a buying syndicate, we obtain a distinct buying advantage. Our syndicate, for instance, will buy the whole output of a mill—something that no one store possibly could do; and it will buy at a correspondingly low price."

THIRTY-THREE YEARS OLD. Thirty-three years ago the business of J. M. High Company was founded by Mr. High at 59 West Peachtree street. That was in 1880. The business grew until it demanded its own building, and in 1899 the move was made to the present building, owned by the company, at the corner of Whitehall and Hunter streets.

Three months ago the plans for this present anniversary sale were started. Now an extraordinary occasion is the result. Every one of the thirty departments of the store, on all five floors, including everything from furniture to millinery, is represented in the sale. The sale promises already to surpass all previous anniversary celebrations.

Col. W. I. Vason Dead

HOME-COMING DAY AT MOORE MEMORIAL CHURCH
The ladies of Moore Memorial church will give a reception to their friends Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

"Missionary Century"
That the transitional period through which the world is now passing, will, when viewed through the perspective of time, be known as the "missionary century of all the ages," was the prophesy made by Dr. Dinkler Ogden in a sermon Sunday morning at the Central Presbyterian church.

"I believe that when the history of this hundred years is written by some one in the future, having all the turbulent episodes and revolutionary changes of the century laid out before him," said Dr. Ogden, "the political struggles, the industrial developments, will all be overshadowed and the period will be known as eminently as the 'missionary century of all the ages.'"

CHILDREN HATE OIL,
CALOMEL AND PILLS
"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dolls" mother insisted you fasted them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicate "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Mothers of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. So that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Vote for Jno. S. Owens for Alderman Eighth Ward. The Ring don't want him—they are fighting him.

---Joshua 24:15

The population of Los Angeles is 319,198. It has grown by leaps and bounds.

One of that city's newspapers, under date of July 6th, 1913, said: "March, 1909, Alexander became Mayor and has held the office continuously since that date."

"Since that day the city has had clean, honest government—It is probable that in this period of law enforcement the population of the city has doubled."

"Never has there been such uninterrupted activity in building. In the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1909, 7,044 building permits were issued, calling for construction valued at $11,187,684. In the fiscal year that ended last Monday (July, 1913) 17,568 permits were issued, and the value of construction called for by them was $34,662,511."

"DECENCY IN GOVERNMENT PAYS—"

"The lugubrious prophecies of the apologists and defenders of vice, who fought for the continuance of the old immoralities, for protection, for a wide open town, for toleration of debauchery, because it was good for business, were proved to be false prophecies."

"Never in all the history of the city has business made such strides as during these four years of law enforcement."

"Never have the banks made greater gains in strength—"

"A local savings bank presented a biennial comparative statement—"

"In 1909 it had resources amounting to $23,980,670. After four years of honest, clean municipal administration, of enforcement of the law, of repression of those vices for which toleration had been demanded by apologists for vice, the resources of that same bank total $46,638,811."

On the wall of the office of Mayor Alexander hung this motto: "Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh in vain."

The same Los Angeles newspaper added: "The city should remember the beginning of the verse—"

"Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

SEATTLE HAS 237,194 INHABITANTS.

Like Los Angeles, it is another city whose name means business, growth and prosperity.

Gill was elected its Mayor on the "wide open town ticket." Soon it was rumored that the very Chief of Police had an interest in a gambling hell. One enterprising citizen started building a two hundred room house in the segregated district.

GILL WAS RECALLED and thrown out of office. The pimps and panderers were driven out of the city. Gill tried to come back. He was again defeated.

Seattle is still growing. Three years ago her people recognized that decency meant progress.

Filth and foul odors always mean decay and death.

Let us have none in Atlanta.

As one who loves your city and your Maker, you should vote tomorrow without fail.

Ask no candidate: "How do you stand?"

But vote for no one until you know who is supporting him. Find this out.

THEN VOTE AS YOUR CONSCIENCE BIDS YOU.

If you believe that God wishes to re-establish and maintain in Atlanta brothels which depend for their existence upon the betrayal of girls, vote for those supported by the men who have tried to hamper and hamstring your Chief of Police in doing his duty.

If you believe that God wishes to destroy an honest official and enthroned Judas, vote for the crowd that is camping on the trail of Chief Beavers.

But, if you believe that God would reward fidelity to duty; if you believe that He would have you and your children live in a city that is clean, and with foundations not built upon the suffering of others, vote for those who are opposed by the men who believe in the licensed brothel and seek a Chief of Police who would be false to his oath of office.

YOUR DUTY DEMANDS THAT YOU VOTE.

Tomorrow is a critical day in your city and in your life.

"Choose you whom you will serve."

Hundreds of Answers to the Suit Question

Choosing the suit this fall is a very pleasant task—at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

It is pleasant because so much has been done for you before you ever see the suits we offer.

The bare fact that here are hundreds of answers to the suit question is of little importance in itself.

But such answers!

We have been more scrupulous than you could ever believe we have not admitted a style that is doubtful.

Suits had to be right!

We did what we are now advising you to do.

We went to the makers who are closest to Paris, those who seem to have the knack of doing things a bit better than the average, of adding the touch, of watching the details that distinguish the suit you will like from the ordinary kind.

Any reason why a woman with a suit to select should deny herself the privileges of such a suit store as this?

Scotch Plaid Skirts

Their vogue is pronounced—that is the vogue for such skirts as you will see here—in New York it amounts to a rage.

They are smart—the "Scotch" of Scotch plaids are used, but soft toned colors, showing dark green, navy, purple and dark red in wonderfully effective combinations. The models are draped and some are very wide in the hips, all with raised waist line. See them! They are priced at $6.50, $7.98, $8.75 & $11.98

Women's Blanket Robes

They are rich affairs this season—following the tendencies that dominate the styles.

Great swirling patterns, neat patterns, materials full of warmth and comfort. Indian effects seem to lead.

Right now the display is very interesting.

Then there are others for men, such that keep a man home of nights.

They are priced at

$3.00, $3.95, $5.00 to $7.50

Blouses That Bloomed in Paris—First

And flowers of fashion they are!

Paris has outdone herself this fall in blouses, too.

There is an oddity and novelty about them that no other season has brought it shows in:

—fabrics—trimmings—colors—fashioning.

There are crepes that are the finest tissues.

Cliffons burdened with patterns.

Allover laces in curious, "ranging" patterns.

There are bead trimmings—an Oriental influence—and there are laces side by side with velvets and tapestry trimmings.

There are colors that a native Bulgarian would affect—to match or to contrast with your suit.

They are fashioned—it seems Paris was in a gay mood—into boleros, vest effects, overhanging blouses, Russian blouses—one after another.

And all with that distinguishing Paris touch that marks the difference between elegance and extravagance. Atlanta women will appreciate this!
